The Advocates for Human Rights

www.theadvocatesforhumanrights.org 612-341-9845

330 Second Avenue South, Suite 800

Minneapolis, MN 55401

The Advocates works on two levels: the systemic level and the individual direct services level. The Advocates' unique approach grounds policy work in the lived experiences of our partners and clients. When our clients experience injustice, we help them and advocate to change the systems that perpetuate those injustices. When our partners report barriers to safety and security, we identify the gaps in legal protections and develop solutions. Rooted in deep expertise and strong relationships, The Advocates works in our home community and in partnerships around the globe to address some of the most intractable human rights issues. The Advocates provides free legal help for only certain types of immigration cases. To learn if you can become a client follow the process at www.theadvocatesforhumanrights.org/Become_a_Client
